

6516205284.txt

I strongly object to the NAB's position against XM traffic and weather. I would use the service if it were available in Seattle (Seattle is a city not yet served by XM traffic).

In general, I think that XM is far superior to the vast wasteland that is FM radio these days.

Sincerely,
Tom Henderson